We Want to Hear From You!

North Dakota is in the process of updating its Olmstead Plan. The goals and activities of the Plan serve to further develop, improve, coordinate, and support community-based services and supports for people with disabilities in our state. The Commission welcomes feedback to inform the implementation of the Plan. The public comment period is open until Monday, February 5th. FAQ

Q: What IS Olmstead?

A: The Olmstead Decision is the name of the U.S. Supreme Court decision that ruled unjustified segregation of persons with disabilities is discrimination in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Q: What does that mean?

A: Very simply, it means people with disabilities have the right to live and receive services in the community of their choice.

“Those that fail to learn from history are doomed to repeat it.”

-Winston Churchill
